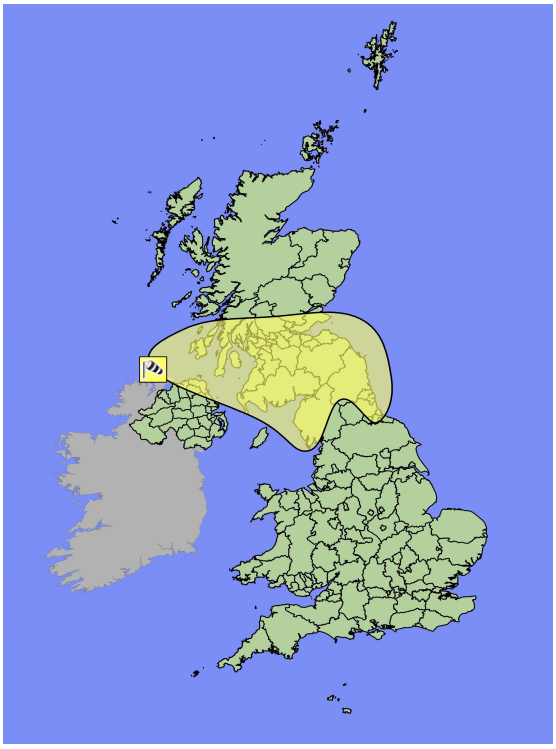
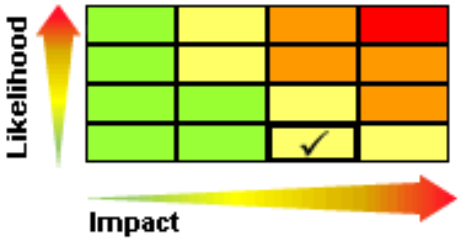
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Strong westerly winds continuing, some uncertainty in the intensity but occasional gusts of 50-60 mph, with isolated gusts 65-70 mph in the most exposed locations are possible.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Alert of Wind

Valid from 09:00 on Tue, 13th Sep 2011 until 20:00 on Tue, 13th Sep 2011

Having eased overnight winds may strengthen again during the day. The Central Lowlands of Scotland and exposed parts of N Ireland and N England perhaps most prone.
The public should be aware of the continued risk of disruption to transport and of the possibility of further damage to trees and structures already in a weakened state.
